2. How to make a difference

Under overall guidance and supervision of the Representative and In light of the resource constraint to the organization leading to consistent reduction in country office allocations and the new opportunities for resource mobilization available to the Gambia, the Programme Analyst for Partnership and Advocacy will support the Country Office in forging new partnerships, lead strategic engagements, donor relations and resource mobilization efforts aimed at mobilizing funds to cover the resource gaps in the Gambia Government/UNFPA 8th Country Programme 2017-21.

UNFPA is the lead UN agency for delivering a world where every pregnancy is wanted, every childbirth is safe and every young person's potential is fulfilled. UNFPA's new strategic plan (2018-2021), focuses on three transformative results: to end preventable maternal deaths; end unmet need for family planning; and end gender-based violence and harmful practices.

In a world where fundamental human rights are at risk, we need principled and ethical staff, who embody these international norms and standards, and who will defend them courageously and with full conviction. UNFPA is seeking candidates that transform, inspire and deliver high impact and sustained results; we need staff who are transparent, exceptional in how they manage the resources entrusted to them and who commit to deliver excellence in programme results.
